Detective Testifies on Crump Arrest

The Mary Pinchot Meyer a Government witness in the Crump as saying his trousers slaying.

Det. Bernard D. Crook told Wiggins has testified that similar to Mrs. Meyer's as he the jury how he arrested Ray-Crump was the man he saw was running in track clothes Mrs. Meyer, a Georgetown arthe arrest. Crook said he ing a man wearing clothes searched Crump but found no similar to Crump's. He said Oct. 12.

murder trial was resumed yes case, identified Crump from became unzipped when the terday with testimony from a about 50 feet as Crump was detective grabbed his belt in Washington detective who ar-walking with a policeman who the search for a weapon. rested the man charged in her had stopped him for questioning earlier.

mond Crump Jr. near the standing over Mrs. Meyer's along the towpath shortly be-C&O Canal towpath, where body less than an hour before fore the slaying.

Another witness, William L. Mitchell, testified he saw a ct. 12. weapon. Crump's trousers the man was walking about Crook said Henry Wiggins, were open and Crook quoted 200 yards behind Mrs. Meyer. Mitchell said he would not recognize the man if he saw him.